MONSTER CROWD TO GREET PROF. FLYNN

Heavy Demand for Tickets to First Health Lectures at M. E. Church Tonight

FLYNN AND HELPER HERE

Evangelist and Miss Boswell Arrive at 5:05—Lecture Begins Promptly at 8 O'clock

Those not already possessing tickets to tonight's lecture can procure them by calling at The Tribune office until 7:45 this evening.

Prof. W. Earl Flynn, who, with Miss Elva Boswell, opens The Tribune's good health campaign at 8 o'clock tonight at the First Methodist church, Eighth and King Sts., arrived in the city this afternoon at 5:05 o'clock, from Rockford, Ill., where he has just closed a most successful campaign.

That Mr. Flynn will be greeted by a monster audience is certain, judging from the heavy demand for tickets. Announcements of the lecture course were made in all of the churches of the city yesterday and the ministers distributed complimentary tickets which had been provided by The Tribune. There has also been a big demand for the tickets at The Tribune office since Saturday evening, and The Tribune advises those who desire good seats to be on hand early, as seats will undoubtedly be at a premium long before the hour of the lecture.

Prof. Flynn's lecture will begin at 8 o'clock sharp, but it is probable that the church will be filled long before that time, and it will be advisable to be at the church early to insure good seats.

Prof. Flynn is accompanied in his work by Miss Boswell, a graduate nurse who takes charge of the women's classes and private lectures and she is said to be an expert in this line of work.

In his lecture tonight Prof. Flynn will endeavor to set forth the theories upon which his work is based and it is important that those interested in having the promised hundred years hear his lecture that they may more thoroughly understand the work which will follow. In every city he has visited Prof. Flynn has organized "Hundred Year Clubs" which take up the work of health building by the Flynn method, which covers a course of eight months, following the departure of Mr. Flynn. The work of these clubs is reviewed monthly by a special instructor, and it is not only while Mr. Flynn is in the city that the health campaign goes on, but it continues indefinitely, spreading the good work over an indefinite period. One of Mr. Flynn's co-workers visits each club once each month to take charge of the work and issue new directions and instructions.

Dr. Dick's Opinion

In an interview Saturday Rev. A. V. Ingham of the Caledonia Street Methodist Episcopal church spoke of having received words of praise for Prof. Flynn from Dr. S. M. Dick, pastor of the Wesley M. E. church of Minneapolis. This is what Mr. Dick actually says of Prof. Flynn and his work:

"It gives me great pleasure to commend to the pastors and churches of our cities Prof. W. E. Flynn and his co-workers in health culture. Wesley M. E. church, this city, of which I have the honor to be the pastor, organized a great health movement, engaging Prof. Flynn and his workers and the movement has proved more than we could have hoped under the most favorable circumstances. The people are enthusiastic in their praise and commendation of both the work and the workers. We have a membership in our 'One Hundred Year club' of 800, with an average attendance of about 400 in our weekly club meetings. I have testimonials in large numbers of wonderful cures, and great benefit. It is proving to be a tremendous means to reaching and interesting outside people in the church. My weekly prayer meeting now averages about 300 whereas it was average about 200."

POLICE RAID NEW GAMBLING HOUSE

Prominent Young Man Haled Into Police Court and Fined for Violation of the Law

PROPRIETOR IS WELL KNOWN

Not One of Old Timers However—Mayor Knew Nothing of Raid—Webber After 'Em All

Under direction of Chief of Police John Yeber, a gambling house, located upstairs, over the "Yellow Front" saloon, 109 North Third street, was raided at 1 o'clock Sunday morning. The proprietor and eight young men, some of them prominent, were taken to central police station, where each of them deposited the maximum fine with the night sergeant, the amount being $200 for the proprietor, and $25 each for the "frequenters."

The nine men appeared before Police Justice Cronin at 3 o'clock this afternoon, where they pleaded guilty under aliases. The proprietor was fined $25, and the guests each $10, and costs. All "liquidated," and the first incident in the first "crusade against crime" in the new administration was closed.

The paraphernalia of the gambling house was seized, and is now piled up at central station, a picturesque pile of fancy tables containing the "get money" slot, a roulette wheel in which once clicked the festive ivory ball, crads, checks, a faro outfit, and all the "utensils of the up-to-date gambling house. It is stated that the material will be burned, and the proprietor, who is a well known La Crosse man, says it is a shame when the bonfire came off.

At the front door of the gaming rooms there is the usual peep hole, with attached electric bulb, by pressing which the identity of those seeking admission can be fixed by one on the inside. The police rudely ignored this formula, and when Wolfe, Wendling and McDonough burst into the room, the players made a dash for the back stairs, their precipitate flight down which all but capsize Sergeant Post, who was waiting for them with welcoming arms. They were taken to the station, where they "qualified" by putting up the maximum fine.

Mayor Sorensen said today that he knew nothing of the raid until informed of it Sunday morning. He said it was the duty of the police to suppress gambling, and that this was done in the ordinary pursuance of their duties.

Chief Webber made a similar statement. He said his men discovered that gambling was going on in the place, and that they promptly suppressed it. He said that, if he could discover any other gaming places in operation, he would suppress them. He said this grimly, without the sign of a smile.

POLAR DRIFT CASK FOUND AFTER DECADE

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 24.—In the cargo of the Cosmopolitan liner Cumbria, which arrived today from Christiania, was the Melville Bryant Drift Cask, No. 26, found on the lonely island of Soro, off the north coast of Norway, Nov. 3, 1908. It is the second one of fifty casks set adrift ten years ago by the Geographical Society of this city in the arctic seas off the northern coast of America to have made the slow journey across the polar regions to the shores of Europe. They were built to test the theory of the Arctic drift, now regarded as well established and upon which the Norwegian explorer Amundsen expects to rely on his drifting voyage through the arctic on which he will start next year.

BAY CITY ON ROCKS

BLOCK ISLAND, R. I., May 24.—Wrenched and hammered by heavy seas, the whaleback steamer Bay City was still lodged on the rocks at Southwest Point today. The revenue cutter Gresham is standing by. Today the wreckers will make a strong effort to dislodge the steamer and if they fail it is expected that she will be left to break up.

PASS PHILIPPINE BILL

- WASHINGTON, May 24.—The Philippine Tariff bill passed the house today by a vote of 128 to 68.
- Representative Underwood (D., Ala.) voted with the Republicans for the passage of the bill and Representative (R., Pa.) voted with the Democrats against it.

SLAYER A SUICIDE MYSTERIOUS STORY

Irvin Carter Dead With Loaded Revolver on Chest—Later Partly Empty One Replaces It

HE SHOT SISTER'S BETRAYER

Was Under Indictment for Killing Man Found Climbing Into the Girl's Window

MOBERLY, Mo., May 24.—Irvin Carter, who shot and killed Thos. Bagby, after a family council at which it was decided Bagby must die, killed himself late last night and today an inquest is being held over his body. Mystery surrounds suicide. The body was found in the Carter home, near Huntsville, Irvin was lying on the floor with his hands folded on his breast. On his body was a revolver, all the chambers of which were loaded.

His mother, sister Beulah, and a younger brother, were at home. Mrs. Carter is said to have declared that she placed the revolver on her son's breast after he shot himself but that she got the wrong revolver. Another was produced and substituted for the one found. The second revolver had one empty chamber.

Irvin Carter and his uncle, George Harris, were under indictment for the killing of Bagby. They declared that Bagby had wronged Beulah. A family council was called according to the story told shortly after Bagby was killed last June.

It was decided that Bagby must be killed. Irvin was selected to do the shooting.

A decoy note, it is said, was sent to Bagby. He went to the Carter home and endeavored to enter Beulah's room. As his head appeared over the window ledge, Irvin fired and killed him.

Harris and Carter were to have been tried during the June term of court. The story of the killing has preyed on Carter's mind, it is said, and recently he has been despondent and has talked of killing self Sunday night he is said to have told his sister he was "going on a long journey and would never see her again."

At the council at which it was decided Bagby must be killed, all the members of the Carter family were present. After discussing the case, a vote was taken and a death sentence passed on Bagby. Beulah's story was that she was afraid of Bagby and that he came to her window frequently and compelled her to come down the ladder and go away with him.

POLICE BREAK UP GOLDMAN MEETING

NEW YORK, May 24.—Followers of Emma Goldman are aroused today over the police intervention with the woman's lecture today. The police drove the audience from the hall after Miss Goldman concluded because of the censorship of her utterances by a police lieutenant, who interrupted her at every point where she approached anarchy.

While the police were clearing the hall, a woman in the audience threw her arms about a policeman and held him while a man struck him. Both were arrested.

HAMMOND DECLINES

WASHINGTON, May 24.—John Hays Hammond, president of the League of Republican clubs, called at the White House today and told the president that he had decided to decline the ministerial post to China, which Mr. Taft offered him several days ago.

WHAT THE NEW TARIFF MEANS TO WOMEN

Diagram showing specifically the percentage of tariff paid in fitting out women's wardrobes.

	Average price.	Tariff.
Plain straw hat	$4.50	$2.25
Artificial flowers	3.50	1.75
Feathers	1.50	.90
Hat pins	1.00	.50
Rats and curls	2.25	.57
Gloves	2.00	.35
Lace collars	.75	.45
Velvet trim goods	12.00	1.50
Buttons	6.00	2.40
One handkerchief	2.50	1.25
Hand bag	.50	.28
Silk and linen lingerie	5.00	1.75
Silk umbrella	20.00	12.00
Hosiery	5.00	2.50
Perfume and toilet articles	6.00	3.60
Shoes	4.00	.60
Estimated jewelry	1.00	50.00
Totals	$177.00	$82.25

For every dollar which the average American woman spends on dressing and ornamenting her person, 46 cents goes to meet the tariff schedules as at present outlined in the Payne bill. While the figures in this concrete form seem unreasonable and unusually high it is doubtless little if any more than the men pay for their outfits.

SALOON FIGHT IN COUNCIL TONIGHT

Aldermen Called Upon to Take up Revocation of Licenses in the Ninth Ward

A special meeting of the common council will be called this evening for the purpose of considering the purchase of the land recommended by the park commission and of considering the revocation of the licenses of the saloons in the Ninth ward. The prohibitionists of that precinct have succeeded in getting a petition signed by a greater share of the citizens of the ward and a warm fight over the question is expected.

Money will also be appropriated for the re-decoration of the city hall and possibly the question of the automobile patrol for the police department will also come up.

From the present indications there is a chance too, that the general charter law providing for the filling of vacancies in the council may come up in the shape of an ordinance. This law provides that the vacancies must be filled at the spring election in April. The present ordinance gives the council the right to call an election any time that there is a vacancy providing such vacancy occurs more than six months before the term of the office left vacant, expires.

PEOPLE'S WELLS ARE DRYING UP

Full Page Sugar Trust 'Ads' in Lieu of Truth in Rank Fraud Cases Says the Senator

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 24.—Attention was called to the sugar trust customs frauds by Owen (D., Okla.) in the senate today. He caused to be read by the clerk a long newspaper story reviewing the fraud case and commenting upon this said: "This is one of the most evil and insidious consequences of the building up of these combinations by the so-called protective tariff. Another evil, and a most serious one, is the drying up of the sources of information depended upon by the people. This case is not mentioned by leading newspapers of New York, but in lieu of the truth they print full page advertisements of the sugar trust."

"This is a very remarkable record for the persistent frauds perpetrated on the United States by one of the greatest beneficiaries of the protective tariff. I call attention to the fact that the sugar trust receives a bounty of from $50,000,000 to $80,000,000 a year to which every child eating a piece of candy is a contributor. When such a corporation is permitted to tax every one of our people one dollar, it is well to look into the sugar schedule which does not serve the people, nor the product."

ALLOWED LYNCHING HELD IN CONTEMPT

Tennessee Sheriff and His Deputies Held Under Decision by United States Court

DIDN'T SAVE NEGRO SLAYER

Decision Comes Late in Case in which Stay was Resented and Followed by Mob Law Hanging

WASHINGTON, May 24.—Adjudged guilty of contempt of the highest court in the land, Sheriff James F. Shiff, one of his deputies, and four citizens of Chattanooga, Tenn., will appear in Washington on June 1 to receive sentence at the hands of Chief Justice Fuller.

Following an opinion read by the chief justice today holding them to have been guilty of contempt in connection with the lynching in 1905 of Ed. Johnson, a negro rapist, who had been granted a stay of execution by the supreme court of the United States, an attachment was issued for the six men and placed in the hands of the marshal for service. The case is unique in the annals of the court.

These who will be sentenced, besides the sheriff, are Deputy Sheriffs Jeremiah Gibson and Luther Williams, Nick Nolan, Henry Padgett and Wm. May, the last four being alleged to have been members of the mob.

The following are those who the court hold guilty of contempt: Sheriff Shipp, Deputy Gibson and Deputy Williams, Noland, Padgett and May.

Following the decision today, attachments were ordered for the six men found guilty. Chief Fuller read the opinion of the court and Justice Peckham was the only one to dissent.

Williams, Noland, Padgett and May, who are citizens, were alleged to have been members of the mob who seized Johnson and assisted in the lynching.

Johnson was found guilty of criminal assault in 1904 and sentenced to be hanged early in 1905. On the day before the date set for his execution, Justice Harlan of the supreme court of the United States, allowed him a stay, in order that he might prepare an appeal.

On the following day a mob stormed the jail and lynched Johnson. The department of justice then brought suit against Sheriff Shipp and 32 others, charging the former with contempt in his failure to protect Johnson and the others with lynching a federal prisoner. When the answer of the defendants was made, Attorney Judson D. Harmon raised the point that Johnson's appeal to the supreme court of the United States was invalid and therefore the stay of execution was also invalid. A special commissioner was later named to take evidence in the case. Upon his report seventeen of the accused men were discharged because of lack of evidence.

GRAFTERS OUT TO GET HENEY'S SCALP

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 24.—The opponents of Francis J. Heney, the Pacific coast graft fighter, are taking steps to deprive him of the support of the federal government, which he has been enjoying since 1904, at an average annual compensation of $10,000.

It is hinted at the department of justice that the demand if made will have to be given consideration inasmuch as Heney's services for three years past appear to have been devoted almost exclusively to the San Francisco municipal graft cases, in which the federal government has no lawful interest. Heney got his commission by direction of President Roosevelt.

STATE LAWS STOP AT FEDERAL LINE

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 24.—The question of jurisdiction of states and of their police power on ground within their borders owned by the government—navy yards, military reservations and the like—was today decided by the supreme court of the United States in the case of the Western Union Telegraph company vs. Samuel Childs, in which it was held that the Virginia penalty law for delay in the transmission of messages could not be held to operate on land owned by the government in that state.

NEILL TO PROBE STRIKE

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 24.—Dr. Chas. P. Neill, commissioner of labor, a member of the arbitration board, created by the Erdman act, left today to make a personal investigation of the strike conditions on the Georgia railway.

NEGRO KILLS PRETTY WIDOW AND HIMSELF

Mysterious Tragedy at Lima Followed by Death of Murderer When the Hounds Approach

INFATUATION IS HINTED AT

Friends of Both, However, Quick to Deny This—Lynching is Prevented Only by Death

LIMA, O., May 24.—John W. Beam the negro, who it is charged, shot and killed Mrs. Maud Diltz last night, was tracked by bloodhounds this morning to a hiding place under his barn. When he saw his pursuers approaching Beam shot himself three times and is now dying in the Lima hospital.

Beam was rental agent for property recently leased by Mrs. Diltz, a handsome widow of 35. She is white.

Last Friday a neighbor saw him ring the bell at Mrs. Diltz's home. The door was bolted and after several ineffectual attempts to enter he went away.

Last night at about 8:40 Beam called again. When the widow looked through the glass and saw who it was there, she tried to lock the door, but Beam was too quick for her. The police say that the attorney forced his way in and chased Mrs. Diltz through the hallway, upstairs, firing five shots from his revolver. Then he fled down the street.

Mrs. Diltz died on the way to the hospital with three wounds.

Neighbors saw the negro running and pursued. He fired his last cartridge at them, turned a corner and disappeared.

A posse of deputies and 150 citizens quickly gathered, led by Sheriff Van Gunten. Bloodhounds were brought from a neighboring town and when they arrived at 3 a.m., they quickly found the lawyer's trail.

Through devious streets and alleyways, the dogs followed until the scent doubled and the trail led them to Beam's residence.

As the baying of the hounds neared the house, about 8 o'clock three shots sounded from the barn. At first the posse halted believing that the alleged murderer had opened fire on them. Then they cautiously advanced and found the man under his barn floor, dying with three bullets in his head.

The police are unable to account for Beam's actions. He is married and had borne a good reputation for a number of years. A story that he was infatuated with the widow, who had repulsed his advances, is discounted by the friends on both sides.

When the dying man was brought to the hospital, the crowd of 500 persons was waiting and only the news that he could not live prevented an attempt at lynching.

Care of Lamps.

The bowl of the lamp should be kept full of oil, but when not in use the wick should be turned low to keep the oil from oozing out on the burner. The burners should be cleaned occasionally by boiling them for half an hour in a strong solution of Gold Dust washing powder. Wipe on a cloth and they will be as good as new. To clean the chimneys, wash them in warm water to which has been added a teaspoonful of Gold Dust washing powder and wipe dry on a soft towel; polish with an old newspaper. Lamp chimneys are made more durable if they are put into a pan of cold water and allowed to heat gradually till the water is boiling and left in the water until cold again.

La Crosse took a muddy contest from Duluth Sunday afternoon by the score of 7 to 4 making it an even split on the series.

With the base line ankle deep with mud it was doubtful whether the game would be played at first but the good sized crowd of chilly fans that had assembled demanded something for their trouble and after much deliberation and delay, during which time many peace conferences were held, the management thought that they needed the money and decided to take a chance. The stands were quickly cleared and the bugs chased to the box window where they obtained the necessary credentials. The ump announced the batteries and the struggle was on.

La Crosse got busy with Pitcher Thorson's output the first thing. Malloy was the first to reach first when he was hit in the slats by a wild one. Crowe rapped a sharp bingle past O'Brien and there were men on first and second with one out. Ed. Kline brought in both of them when he hit a beauty past first. Roy Klein then rapped out a single that Kohl couldn't quite get and Safford hit through second base scoring Kline. O'Brien then tied a can to Mr. Thorson and called Murray to the rescue. Murray responded in nice style but not until Schaffer had poked out a high fly letting Klein come in with the fourth tally for La Crosse. The husky flinger retired the side by slipping over three strikes on Pfeffer.

This didn't terrorize Joe's bunch the least and just to show that they were not afraid of Murray's benders they stung him for four hits in the third. These slippery swats brought in three runs making their total seven. This was enough and being of a modest disposition the sluggers were content.

Pfeffer was on the slab for the locals started off in nice style but three hits and a bum play by Crowe brought in two scores in the second. The White Sox gathered another in the fifth and one more in the sixth.

The big blond then tightened up on the Northerners and the game was won without giving them another chance at the pudding.

Notes of the Game
Low Drill's Superior bunch next in the program.
Watson will probably be on the mound tomorrow with Gas Fogel behind the bat.

Boss Safford took the batting honors with Third Base Breen a close second. Joe came out of the fray with a perfect record, getting three hits out of three times up. Breen, who also starred in the field, also got three swats but he was at bat four times.

Catcher Fogel, who was banished from the grounds for two days by his Honor Magee, appeared in a uniform much to the delight of the fans, but was quickly chased behind the scenes by the umpire whose eagle eye sighted him from afar.

Malloy was compelled to retire at the end of the sixth on account of being hit in the back by one of Thorson's passionate heaves at the very beginning of the game.

BRESNAHAN HONORED
BY MANY ADMIRERS

NEW YORK, May 24.—Sixty-one leading "fans," including senators, lawyers, actors and just plain fans will give Roger Bresnahan, former catcher of the New York Nationals, now manager of the St. Louis organization, a big loving cup at the Polo grounds this afternoon and then they will all root their hardest for the Cardinals to lose.

This will be Rober's first appearance here this season and it is expected that the attendance will be a record breaker for an off day.

Only five Detroit players reached first base, but four scored and one died stealing, not a player being left on the bases. Two hits were bunched with a pass in the first, and two more with a wild throw in the seventh. Cobb's hits counted all of the runs. Washington had several chances to score, but could not hit with men waiting a decision.

Chicago won the opening game of the series from New York, 7 to 3. A batting rally in the second inning, when the Sox team made a three-base hit, a single, and a double in a row, and scored three, was the feature.

At St. Louis in the best game that has been seen this year Boston lost the first contest of the series 1 to 0. Waddell was in good form. In the ninth inning the winning run was scored on two singles and two sacrifices.

LA CROSSE HIGHS
TRIM SPARTANS

In a one-sided and uninteresting game of baseball the La Crosse high school boys trimmed the Sparta boys
Saturday afternoon on the former's grounds by the score of 15 to 3. Jefferson, the former Waterloo of the local team, proved very ineffective, and with poor support and the La Crosse boys' hitting like demons, 15 tallies had been rolled up against him before the game was over. Sparta does not feel any humiliation over the defeat as Jefferson, the main stay of the team, sprained his ankle in the fore part of the game, this making it impossible for him to pitch in his regular form. The batting of Emil Kabat and Ralph Bradish were the features of the game.

The score by innings:

La Crosse...050 302 23—15
The teams lined up as follows:

GAMES AT PRAIRIE DU CHIEN

PRAIRIE DU CHIEN, Wis., May 24.—(Special).—The game arranged between Marquette University and Sacred Heart college for Saturday was called off because of the abandonment of a trip planned for Marquette including St. Paul, Prairie du Chien and Dubuque. The W. B. U. team of La Crosse played against Sacred Heart at the college grounds Sunday afternoon, the game resulting in a score of 12 to 4 in favor of Sacred Heart.

The Lansing, Iowa, team came down for a game against the Prairie du Chien city team Sunday afternoon. It was rather a one-sided contest, the score being as follows:
P. du C. — 3 0 2 0 0 0 0 0 6—11
Lansing — 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 2—2
Prairie du Chien high school team went to Boscobel Saturday afternoon for a game with the Boscobel highs and lost by a score of 21 to 9. This will be the last game of the season for the high school nine.

Miss Nemina Olson Lives but Few Months After Coming Here from Home in Norway

BRAIN FEVER CAUSES DEATH

Young Holmen Woman is Brought to Lutheran Hospital, but Nothing Can Save Her Life

After a two weeks illness of brain fever at the Lutheran hospital, Miss Nemina Olson of Holmen, aged 22, expired Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

The young lady became seriously ill about two and a half weeks ago and as no improvement in her condition was noticed she was taken to the Lutheran hospital here for treatment. She lingered between life and death for two weeks the end coming yesterday morning.

The deceased has been in the country since last August when she came here from her home in Norway, where her parents still reside. She had made her home at the residence of Carl Olson at Holmen, since her arrival in this country.

The funeral arrangements are not as yet completed but it is thought that the funeral will take place on next Thursday from the Norwegian church at Half Way Creek, the undertaker Sletten in charge. The services will be conducted by Rev. Berrum. Interment will be made in the Half Way Creek cemetery.

THINK HARD.

It Pays to Think About Food.

The unthinking life some people lead often causes trouble and sickness, illustrated in the experience of a lady in Fond du Lac, Wis.

"About four years ago I suffered dreadfully from indigestion, always having eaten whatever I liked, not thinking of the digestible qualities. This indigestion caused palpitation of the heart so badly I could not walk up a flight of stairs without sitting down once or twice to regain breath and strength.

"I became alarmed and tried dieting, wore my clothes very loose, and many other remedies, but found no relief.

"Hearing of the virtues of Grape-Nuts and Postum, I commenced using them in place of my usual breakfast of coffee, cakes or hot biscuit and in one week's time I was relieved of sour stomach and other ills attending indigestion. In a month's time my heart was performing its functions naturally and I could climb stairs and hills and walk long distances.

"I gained ten pounds in this short time, and my skin became clear and I completely regained my health and strength. I continue to use Grape-Nuts and Postum for I feel that I owe my good health entirely to their use. "There's a Reason."

"I like the delicious flavour of Grape-Nuts and by making Postum according to directions, it tastes similar to mild high grade coffee."

REV. G. M. THUROW LEAVES LA CROSSE

Decides to Listen to Urgent Request of Synod Heads to Accept Bay City, Michigan, Call

REV. O. KUHLWALD SUCCESSOR

Wonewoc Man Will Come Here to Take Charge of the Emanuel German Evangelical Church

At a special meeting of the officers of the congregation of the Emanuel German Evangelical Lutheran church, last evening, Rev. Thurow was granted a release, to accept the call from the church at Bay City, Mich. The matter was first brought up for a final decision May 17, but nothing in the way of a definite settlement was made. Last night the officers decided that as it would be the best thing for them to grant the pastor his desired release. The church at Bay City is a large one and Rev. Thurow feels that in accepting this call he will have a much larger field for his work than in this city. This is one of the most important stations in the country which means much to the rising young minister.

Mr. and Mrs. Thurow expect to leave for their future home in a few weeks.

Rev. Gotthold M. Thurow came to this city as a young man, nearly nine years ago, a graduate of the theological seminary at Wauwatosa, Wis., to serve in the capacity of an assistant to the minister of the north side church at that time. After working here for some time, the congregation extended the call to him to become their pastor, which he at once accepted. It was through his tireless efforts and unceasing energy that the new church which now stands at the corner of Avon and St. Paul streets was erected. This edifice will always stand as a monument to the departing pastor for his efficient and excellent work while in this city. During his residence here he has gained a host of friends who are sorry to learn of his departure but wish him success in his new field.

Rev. Thurow says his relations in La Crosse have been most pleasant and that he has been pleased with the work accomplished here. It is only upon the urging of the president and secretary of the synod that he leaves this city, he says, and were it not for this he would like to remain. He will announce his farewell sermon next Sunday.

"LEN" LOTTRIDGE LETTERS

WEST SALEM, Wis., May 24.—As summer is getting near, the question uppermost in the minds of many is as to where and how the hot weather period shall be spent. For several years we have regarded the bluff directly south of the village of Salem as the best ground in this county for campers and outing tourists, and have wondered at this beautiful spot being left, and low swampy land with standing water that generates gnats, flies and mosquitoes, and other disease carrying insects, selected. This bluff is over three hundred feet higher than Salem, has a beautiful lawn and shady trees at the top and is reached by a good road, and surrounded with dry pure air and within five minutes ride of both railroad depots, and but twenty minutes walk from the May hotel, that stands among the best known public houses in the land.

Parties camping here need take no thought towards supplying their own food, as that indispensable factor is close at hand, where breakfast, lunch and six o'clock dinner can be obtained daily, and as West Salem is to be dry after July 1st, our creamery will furnish buttermilk to all comers. The La Crosse daily evening papers are delivered at 7 p. m., and the morning dailies from Milwaukee and Chicago at 7 a. m. and campers can run their automobiles right to their tents.

A grand panoramic view at the top of this bluff is had that reaches up the La Crosse valley for miles beyond Sparta, and extends west to the vicinity of La Crosse. Some years ago an army surgeon, who was in the battle of Lookout mountain, pronounced this view equal to that on that historic battlefield.

Ample facilities in boating can be found on Neshonic mill pond, where the women can ride and row their boats in safety. The greatest and grandest ride can be enjoyed by taking a boat or skiff to the bridge crossing the La Crosse river north of Bangor putting into the water, with a person in the rear to steer, take passengers and provisions for a floating trip to Neshonic mill pond which will occupy about six hours, and ample opportunities are offered to tie up, go ashore in the shade of standing trees, build a fire, make your coffee and do any other cooking desired. Pleasure seekers have nothing to do but float down the river until the mill pond is reached, when some light rowing may be necessary. There are plenty chances for fishermen to try their luck on this down river ride that is very exhilarating and health giving.

The automobile association of La Crosse has appointed a committee to adopt plans for the completion of the highway between Salem and the city of La Crosse. This road has been macadamized nearly one-half of the distance and already furnishes a hard and smooth surface for rapid passage for both autos and carriages, and the half yet to be improved can be quickly and cheaply prepared for vehicles of all classes.

Henry Kendrick, who antedated Stevens as a resident of Mindoro, made the acquaintance of Miss Brown, a daughter of Samuel Brown, and he industriously put in about four years sparking this young lady, with whom he went to all social gatherings during this time and neighbors all looked upon the matter as developing into a sure and certain wedding. About this time Stevens, who was looked upon as a confirmed bachelor, began to cast admiring and loving glances at Miss Brown who promptly reciprocated and as Henry had been too slow on the trigger, the game escaped, and he was forced to take a back seat and see the procession go by, for the merchant who meant business all the Pleasure seekers will find this a grand passage way for an outing to the country precincts, and especially to the camp grounds on the top of the bluffs south of Salem, some four hundred feet above that village, which can be easily reached by all campers, either on foot or in automobiles.

A few days since I had a pleasure call from Frank S. Brown, of Mindoro, who is one of the oldest settlers in that town, he having located there fifty-five years ago. In 1854, with him came his two brothers, Asa and Samuel, both of whom purchased land and opened farms in the upper part of Lewis Valley but which they later sold, moved from the town and some years ago passed onto join the great majority in the "better land." Frank S. married Miss Beckwith in the very house in which he now lives and has occupied for fifty years or more and worked the farm at that time.

For fifty years he has been a quiet, plodding, contented farmer, going in and out before his neighbors as an industrious upright tiller of the soil, and seemed fully satisfied with the conditions and circumstances that fell to his lot, never complaining or finding fault, but performing his daily duties as he conscientiously saw them. Some years since his wife died and he has since kept his home, while his son has worked the farm.

One year later, in 1855, he was followed by A. J. and E. Stevens of Boston, who erected a store, filled it with merchandise and were the first dealers in dry goods, groceries and Yankee notions in the town of Farmington under the name of A. J. and E. Stevens.

Some years later A. S. W. Cook of Boston, who was a brother-in-law came on from the east and became a partner, the firm name being Stevens Brothers & Cook. The senior member of the firm was the head of the company and an active and honest merchant. He committed a fatal error in buying goods on time and selling them on trust to most every farmer that sought trade there. The outcome was when the time of payment to eastern creditors came, his customers failed to pay their bills and the firm could not meet its obligations and were forced into bankruptcy and went out of business.

A. J. Stevens was elected clerk of the county board of La Crosse in 1859, which position he well and ably filled for years. During his official period he married Miss Bentley, a sister of E. E. Bentley, president of the Batavian National bank. After the close of his official duties he purchased an interest in the Rushford Wagon company and for years was the manager of that flourishing corporation which position he held until his death, which occurred many years ago.

E. Stevens had but little interest or inclination for the business of a merchant, but bought land and today has the reputation of being one of the best farmers in the county of La Crosse.

Henry Kendrick, who antedated Stevens as a resident of Mindoro, made the acquaintance of Miss Brown, a daughter of Samuel Brown, and he industriously put in about four years sparking this young lady, with whom he went to all social gatherings during this time and neighbors all looked upon the matter as developing into a sure and certain wedding. About this time Stevens, who was looked upon as a confirmed bachelor, began to cast admiring and loving glances at Miss Brown who promptly reciprocated and as Henry had been too slow on the trigger, the game escaped, and he was forced to take a back seat and see the procession go by, for the merchant who meant business all the

ALONE IN BARREN MANSION

Sells Jewels and Furniture to Aid Payment of All Creditors of Morse

NEW YORK, May 24.—Bishop bare drawing room in the great house in Fifth avenue, denuded of all its priceless art furnishings, the wife of Chas. W. Morse, the former multi-millionaire president of the ice trust who is now waiting the final disposition of his case in the federal courts in the Tombs prison, today made her first public statement of her affairs and those of her husband. The art treasures, and even the necessary furniture of the Morse home have gone to pay the creditors and the energetic southern woman occupies the barren-like place with a single servant, willing for it to be sold over her head.

Morse is under a fifteen year sentence for conspiracy to "wreck" the Bank of North America.

"How many people know that my husband has paid every dollar owed to every depositor in the Bank of North America?" demanded Mrs. Morse earnestly. "Of an indebtedness of $7,000,000 more than $5,000,000 has been paid and if Mr. Morse had had his liberty he would not owe a penny today."

"But during his imprisonment many judgments have been obtained against him, many suits brought which are purely and simply blackmail."

"One of these was brought against me, although the claim dated back six years and was absolute blackmail, my lawyers advised me to settle it rather than have the additional notoriety the suit would entail."

"Too much has been said of little things," Mrs. Morse continued. "Of course, I sold my jewels to help my husband. What wife would not?"

"My husband is anxious that all his creditors shall be paid. The government officials boasted that they would ruin my husband and all his enterprises, but I did not believe the court could be used as a party to this."

"Long ago persons high in power vowed they would ruin Mr. Morse. They have kept their vow against justice and against truth."

while, married the girl, Kendrick took a philosophical view of the situation and was quiet and peaceable. He had learned there was much danger in delay and in short order coveted and married Miss Mathewson, his present and most estimable wife. Both couples moved onto farms and being good farmers, both laid aside ample competence for old age, and both moved to West Salem, where they occupy beautiful residences and prepared to spend the last days of life in ease, happiness and contentment, and they have always been warm and intimate friends during all these years. They are among our most highly respected, retired farmers, so many of whom have become residents of our beautiful village until the last sad summons calls

CHAMP CLARK BIG CHAUTAUQUA FIGURE

Among the men in public life for the next few years, few will probably attract more attention, especially in the Democratic party, than Hon. Champ Clark of Missouri. Clark has long been a prominent character in politics, but just now he is exceedingly prominent. It has been the history of the nation that the man who is the minority leader on the floor of the house of representatives achieves almost as much fame as any other member of congress, not excluding the speaker.

Champ Clark is one of the veteran members of congress, having represented a Missouri district for nearly two decades. He has long been accounted one of the brilliant debaters on the floor of the house; he is able and convincing in argument, a renowned wit, a master of satire and in every way qualified to lead a body of representative men. Mr. Clark has long been one of the dominant factors in his party—the Democratic. He has been in great demand in campaigns, and in more than one national convention he has been regarded as one of the real leaders of that body.

Champ Clark has also been noted on the lecture platform. His lectures have always been in great demand. All in all, few men in public life have had such a wide hearing as has Champ Clark. And on account of his present position in the national house of representatives, which makes him one of the foremost Democrats of the nation, he will naturally be given a still wider hearing.

BAPTISTS GO TO SPARTA SESSION

The La Crosse Valley Baptist association will hold their annual meeting at Sparta May 24 to 26. Things of interest to the delegates and plans of improvement will be discussed. The delegates from the Tabernacle Baptist church are the Mesdames T. Huntley, C. Blanchard, F. C. Lampman, Sarah White and Rev. George W. Fogg and John Wolcott. George Marvin, Jr., the La Crosse member of the state board, will attend the meeting. The visiting delegates are Mrs. Sarah Bunn and Mrs. George Marvin, Jr. The delegates sent up by the B. Y. P. U. are three Misses Minnie Knight and Haidee Nelson.

CHAS. W. MORSE NOW PENNILESS AND IN JAIL AND HIS WIFE WHO HAS SOLD ALL TO AID HIM

NEW YORK, May 19.—In two short years the vast millions of Chas. W. Morse have vanished. He no longer has control of the banks, steamboat lines, ice business and real estate which were his. He is without money to pay many of his creditors and is in jail.

One of the most pitiable results of his downfall is that it has brought sorrow and poverty to his beautiful and charming wife. During all his troubles of the past 18 months she has stood by him. Mrs. Morse has sold all the property and personal belongings to aid him in his trial and now she too is without funds. No matter what the world may say about Morse and his method the misfortunes of his wife cannot but appeal to a sympathetic chord in every person.

DAHLGREN MAKES A GOOD SHOWING
Local Boy Comes Out Well in Athletic Event at Minneapolis on Saturday
MENOMINEE WINS HONORS
School Will Probably Be Seen Here in Interscholastic Meet Which Is as Good as Won
Competing against the classiest aggregation of high school and preparatory school weight throwers in the northwest, Arthur Dahlgren, the only representative of the local school, made an excellent showing at the interscholastic track and field meet of the university of Minnesota Saturday, gathering a total of six points in the distance and hammer throws. He tossed the saucer shaped weight out a distance of 104 feet and 9 in. In the hammer event the local athlete was distinctly off color, being able to get out a trifle over 130 feet, which is about 17 feet behind the throw which he made at the meet held here about two weeks ago.
The meet was won by the Menominee high school team, which will in all probability be seen here in the interstate meet, given under the auspices of the local high school, in which event they will probably walk away with the meet in an easy fashion.
The plans for the local meet are being pushed to a state of completion. The programs are being published and with the advertising matter which has already been secured the meet promises to be a success from a financial point of view.
Gold, silver and bronze medals will be awarded to the winners of first, second and third places in each event. A beautiful shield will be given the winners of the relay race. The local boys will make a strong bid for this trophy as their team made excellent time in the tryouts Saturday, going the required distance nine seconds under the qualification mark.
The athletes here will put in a strenuous week of training and next Saturday the pick of the local aggregation will compete at Madison at the state interscholastic meet. Chances for La Crosse placing in the meet are very slim as the marks of the local athletes were totally eclipsed by athletes from the eastern part of the state in the Lawrence meet which was held Saturday.

The Heir to the Hoorah.
"The Heir to the Hoorah" is listed by every competent newspaper critic in New York among the five most successful American plays, its presentation here will be a matter of considerable interest to judicious patrons of the theater and of special interest to the growing and enthusiastic cult which stands for the American drama from foreign sources, and the direct importation of stage fabrics made in Great Britain.
Lest the casual reader be misled by the rather weird title, it must be explained that the Hoorah is the name of a gold mine and the "heir" is a male infant. The scenes of the four acts are all laid in a mining town, east of the divide. This play will be produced by the Woodruff Stock company three nights and one matinee, commencing Monday, May 24.
Brains Have Their Uses
John Bright used to tell how a barber who was cutting his hair once said to him: "You 'ave a large 'ead, sir; it is a good thing to 'ave a large 'ead, for a large 'ead means a large brain, and a large brain is the most useful thing a man can 'ave, as it nourishes the roots of the 'air.'"—The Argonaut.

LONGSHOREMEN TO JOIN LAKE STRIKE
CLEVELAND, O., May 24.—An addition of 30,000 men to those now involved in the lake carriers' strike is promised if the vessel owners refuse the demands of the longshoremen. The claims are being prepared today by the international committee of the union which has the power to declare hte strike if the carriers answer not satisfactory.
Delegates representing 56 locals from various lake ports met here yesterday and decided to take this action. The longshoremen contend that under the "open shop" plan now in use, union men are discriminated against by dock managers. There are 5000 men in the longshoremen's organization, but the members say if they go out nearly 25,000 dock laborers will come with them.
The longshoremen declare that if the carriers do not promise recognition of their union or at least agree not to discriminate against it, June 1 will see one of the biggest strikes ever known on the lakes.

Cobb is just beginning to develop his 1907 and 1908 form, and seems to be rapidly rounding to. He led the American league in batting in 1907 with an average of .350. In 1908 he was only passed by Chriss of St. Louis, who participated in but 64 games, and who had accumulated an average of .341. Cobb was really again the leading batsman of the season, with an average for 150 games of .324. In the 1908 world's championship series Cobb's batting was phenomenal with an average of .368, although he was unable to accumulate any of the hits after extra bases, for which he is usually famous. While his batting has not yet become phenomenal the present season, his fielding continues to be perfection and his base running is still the wonder and admiration of American league fans. No greater tribute could be paid to this batsman than lies in the fact that he stole two bases on Kling in Chicago during the world's championship series last

WEDDING AS "AD" FOR WOMEN'S RIGHTS

SPOKANE, Wash., May 24.—The advocates of women's rights in Washington are advertising a new scheme to attract attention to their cause. It was announced today that a "tall, handsome and rich man" will be married to a "beautiful, rich and vivacious" suffragist in the drawing room of the suffragette special train on June 29 while it is speeding over the state of Washington. Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and Rev. Anna Shaw, two of the country's leading suffragettes, will be witnesses to the ceremony.

WRIGHTS WANTS $60,000 FOR RIGHTS

LONDON, May 24.—Tussaud's Wax Works, one of the biggest concerns of its kind in the world, is today seeking legal advice whether it can make models of the Wright aeroplanes for exhibition purposes without infringing on the Wright patents. Representatives of the Wrights insist the company must purchase the right to make such models, which they offer to sell for $60,000. John Tussaud, manager of the establishment, says this figure is prohibitive.

BULL FIGHT ON A N. Y. THOROFARE

NEW YORK, May 24.—The West Side took on the appearance of a Spanish plaza del torres yesterday when five longhorn steers broke from a herd being driven into an abattoir and rushed madly through the avenue. Two of the steers swam the Hudson river at Hoboken, two were captured after they plunged into the river, and the fifth bled to death after a squad of policemen had fired thirty bullets into his body.

The steer that took to the streets rushed madly through the Eleventh Avenue section, scattering women and children. A squad of policemen followed, firing bullet after bullet into the animal. After a quarter of an hour's chase, two butcher-cowboys lassoed him and knifed him to death.

PICKLED HEAD OF MAN SCARES DRUNKS

Perfectly Preserved Human Head Lies on Desk of Sergeant When the Drunks Come In CHICAGO, May 24.—At least a dozen drunks who were steered into one of the suburban police stations early today have taken the pledge. When they were brought before the desk sergeant a sight met their eyes that would make anyone "swear off" and every taster of the booze was confident he "had 'em."

Resting proudly on the top of the desk was a perfectly preserved man's head with a hat cocked rakishly on one side. The eyes stared vacantly into space and when the imbibers were brought closer he could touch the head. One victim was so violently affected that he started a Salome dance about the head. As yet the police have not been able to find just where the head came from, although it is supposed it "escaped" from some medical college. Two small boys were found last night joyfully kicking a round object about the street. An officer investigated and discovered it to be a man's head.

The head had been pickled and is perfectly preserved, even to the hair and eyes.

ducers of raw sugar in Louisiana. Owen made a motion instructing the finance committee to report if there was any good reason why the words "not above number sixteen Dutch standard," should not be struck from the sugar schedule.

Aldrich suggested that Owen's amendment could be considered when the sugar schedule was reached.

"I did not present an amendment," said Owen hotly. "I submitted a resolution of instruction to the finance committee—or rather to the chairman, who is the committee."

CHICAGO, May 24.—With delivery day for May deals just six days away, the wheat pit was considerably excited today and new high price records were set in May and July.

Right at the outset, these two futures started to rise and in the first hour May advanced to $1.33½, which is ½¢ higher than any previous record. July opened at $1.17½ and quickly went to $1.18½, a new record for the crop. September opened at $1.08½ and jumped at once to $1.10.

TO STOP BASEBALL

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 24.—An affidavit was this morning filed in criminal court by Frank F. McCrea, an insurance man, against Chas. C. ## MONSTER CROWD TO GREET PROF. FLYNN aging only about ninety before the movement was organized.

"Prof. Flynn is a Christian gentleman and does his work conscientiously and won his way into the affection of our people. His Vital Center System of exercises is most admirable and yet simple."

A Better Preacher

Rev. Otis G. Dale, pastor-evangelist and Sabbath school missionary within the Presbytery of Minneapolis thinks he is a much better man for his contact with Prof. Flynn. This is what he wrote to Mr. Flynn as an expression of his appreciation: "I want to tell you frankly, Professor, that no kind of money can measure the great good that I have received personally from your course in health culture. I am vastly a better man, a better husband and father, and a much better preacher of the gospel because of the faith and ideals which I have imbibed through contact with you, and in the practice of your system. More than that, I have a better gospel to preach. I have always felt that the defect of a purely spiritual system for sinful men who are so much physical, and whose quality of spiritual life so much depends upon their physical conditions. I regard it no less than stupidity on the part of theologians and the church generally that we have so long neglected what Christ and our common sense ought to have taught as the complete gospel."

"I personally, and all whom you teach, that are able to appreciate the gospel in its fullness, owe to you an eternal debt of gratitude. I know of no better way myself of discharging this debt than by becoming an active student and a zealous advocate of your system."

"We have a great work to do. The quack 'healer' of every kind, making merchandise of the people, must be put out of business, and the church of Christ must be led to reclaim her own, viz: the power and right to heal her own and the ills of others through faith that works by love."

"My our Father bless you abundantly in your great mission."

Old Maxim Wrong

Professor Flynn has some decided ideas as to a person's diet. He corrects the old maxim, "Feed a cold and starve a fever" to read, "Feed a cold and you will be obliged to starve a fever."

He has perhaps done more than any other man in the country to reduce grocery bills.

"Never eat breakfast" is what he tells his classes and lives up to this principle himself.

Wherever he has been, he has so impressed this upon his audiences that thousands of people are going without their breakfast, and every one claims he is the better for it. Americans eat too much according to Professor Flynn. When a person contracts a cold, Professor Flynn's first advice is to cut out dairy and sugar foods. Take plenty of violent exercise, to induce a sweat, so that nature may rid the system of the poisonous matter in the blood through the pores of the skin. Flush the lungs with clear, pure air, and give her another chance to throw off the poison through the lung cells. Take the exercise prescribed to induce the bowels and kidneys to eliminate the poison.

Only One Disease

"There is only one disease," says Professor Flynn. "It is bad blood, call it by what name you please."

"And do not glut the system with more food. Give the stomach, liver and kidneys a chance to work off the cold. Do not crowd and glut them with more work."

Government Surveyor Mills of the Rocky Mountain survey expedition did all his hardest work, climbing mountains and ploughing through miles of snow drifts, living only on peanuts and raisins which he carried in his pockets.

Merton Smith, friend of Moody and known as the Scottish athlete preacher, gives one of the best testimonials of Professor Flynn's work. Overworked and run down by constant and close application to the application to his work, he was almost at a state of collapse. He had gained flesh, however, but was inactive and flabby. After three weeks under Professor Flynn's care he had reduced his weight from 220 pounds to 215 pounds, his waist girth from 50 inches to 41½ inches, merely by adherence to the teacher's principles.

Felt 20 Years Younger

Writing at the end of that time, he said, "I feel 20 years younger. I can work from 7 a. m. until midnight without feeling tired, whereas before, after my pastoral visitation I was completely exhausted."

Dr. Smith until 1907 had been suffering from throat trouble for 12 years, when he started treatment under Professor Flynn.

"After the first treatment," he says, "I laid aside my applications and devoted myself to the Flynn treatment. I stopped eating breakfast, cut down my meals, took my brush bath exercise, flushing, and towel baths. The third day I changed heavy winter flannels for spring flannels although the winter was severe. The sixth day I changed the lightest summer underwear (cotton) without the slightest inconvenience. From the first day my voice began to improve."

Writing to Mr. Flynn a year later he said, "You would hardly know me now. My weight varies between 185 and 192. My girth is down to 38, my neck to 16. My throat has gained month by month and the old trouble never returned. Breakfast has never been laid in our family since your visit; every one of the children have got rid of catarrh."

It is such letters as these and the personal testimonials of newspaper men in Cedar Rapids and Davenport who have managed Professor Flynn's campaigns there, which warrants The Tribune in believing that he has what the people of this city need.

LUMBER TARIFF TO BE CUT A LITTLE

Will Take 50 Cents from the Dingley Rate, Thus Raising Payne Schedule 50 Cents on the Produce

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 24.—Chairman Aldrich of the finance committee, hopes to be able to obtain a vote upon the lumber schedule before today's session is over. The committee retained the rates in the schedule, as passed by the house, and no recommendations of its own so that the question as to whether lumber shall be put on the free list, or be taxed one dollar, one dollar or two dollars per thousand feet, which latter is the rate under the Dingley law, will be left to the senate to determine by vote. Present indications are in favor of a tax of $1.50 on rough lumber.

Aldrich and his associates on the committee are disposed to make concessions in the rates on dressed or finished lumber.

When Senator McCumber's amendment providing for free lumber was laid before the senate today, Senator Root of New York spoke in favor of the retention of the Dingley rates on dressed and finished lumber. He said that any reductions would result in transferring a great many American mills to Canada. He insisted that the existing rates were no higher than to enable the American mills to make a fair profit. He described the great extent of the sawmill industry in northern New York and along the southern border of the great lakes. Mr. McCumber interrupted to read a letter which stated that the cost of dressing lumber on one side was only fifteen cents per thousand feet and on all four sides would not exceed 45 cents per thousand feet. Root and Senator Hale thereupon both produced documents from men in the business showing that the cost was very much higher than those figures.

ROB TRAIN; FLEE IN A AUTOMOBILE

OMAHA, Neb., May 24.—The police believe the four men who held in the overland limited in the suburbs Saturday night are in Omaha.

John Favell, who lives near the scene of the holdup, says he saw four men in an automobile speeding into town after the train had started onward, after the holdup.

A mail sack picked up by Police Captain Moslyn Sunday morning between the point of the robbery and Omaha contained a greasy gauntlet such as automobile drivers wear. The sack had been cut open and all but one registered package taken from it.

The police are looking for a young man who they believe was implicated and whose automobile has been put to criminal uses before. His description answers that given one of the robbers.

Sheriff Bauman of Fremont, telephoned that three men climbed on the train just as it pulled out of Fremont. He gives their description. The fourth robber, who waited with the automobile, built a fire by the track to show the others where to stop the train.

Chief Inspector Perkins of the police department, and all the Omaha detectives, the local railroad detectives from Lincoln are working on the case.

Rewards aggregating $24,000 are offered for the capture of the four bandits who held up the Union Pacific Overland Limited south of this city Saturday night, have called out a horde of detectives from neighboring cities and one of the biggest man-hunts this state has ever had is now in progress.

Descriptions of three of the bandits have been furnished by Sheriff Bauman, of Fremont, who says he saw the trio board the train at that point, which is the last stop the train makes before reaching this city. Jacob Jacobson, a teamster, found a bunch of registered letters in a out-of-the-way place near the Missouri river, across the city from where the robbery took place. They had been filed.

The thing a man takes the most pride in about his family is how much he would have to spend on himself if they didn't do it on themselves.

Blessed be those that buy "America" Alarms, for they will praise them!

Every "America" I sell, sells another, for every man I sell, tells another.

SUPERIOR TEAM ARRIVES IN TOWN

Drill Says He's in Hard Luck but Expects to Get Into the Game With New Players

Lew Drill and his bunch of players representing Superior arrived this morning from Winona where they lost three straight. This fact does not bother Manager Drill (who by the way is considered among the best in the bush leagues,) and he says that if the Superior fans and officials only quit knocking and show a little spirit he expects to pull out of the hole before the season is well started. Drill has switched the lineup several times of late and today there will be more changes.

"I suppose you think we are a pretty poor bunch," said Mr. Drill today to a reporter. "We have been playing bum ball so far but as soon as I got a few players that know the game I will be in shape to play ball. I started out rather late you know and I really haven't had a chance to get a team in form. I have a number of excellent men coming in a few days and we will get in the game for good."

Among the players Drill has signed are Stremmel, the former Green Bay twirler who is expected in a few days, Coping and Melter of Sioux City, Ia. The Superior team lined up this afternoon as follows. Horne 2b., Hopkins cf., Holstrom, lb., Roy, rf., Smith, Baker 3b., Bancroft ss., Clapper c., Miller p.

La Crosse started with Pitcher Wilbur Schardt, the spit ball artist, on the slab and Roy Klein behind the bat. Klein's regular position is catcher and it was that position that he tried out with Dubuque this spring.

DRY STATES CAN'T KEEP THE WET OUT

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 24.—Holding that the federal government alone has power to regulate interstate liquor shipments, the supreme court of the United States, in a decision rendered by Justice Brewer, decided in favor of the Adams Express company in the suit brought by the state of Kentucky against it, for violation by an interstate shipment, of the state statute prohibiting railroads from delivering liquor to known inebriates. Justice Harlan dissented.

"Whatever the wholesomeness of the motive," said the justice in his opinion, "congress alone has power to regulate interstate liquid transportation."

Liquor, which was purchased at Nashville, Tenn., and forwarded through North Albany, Ind., was delivered by the express company to a consignee at Bonnierville, Ky. When the company was sued under the liquor shipment law, the Hart circuit court adjudged the shipment as not of an interstate character and found in favor of the state.

LOVE FOR HIS BOY BRINGS CAPTURE

ORANGE, N. J., May 24.—Edward B. Towne, the former cashier of the Matheson Land company, who has been missing since the discovery of a $30,000 shortage in his accounts, is in the Orange police headquarters today as the result of his love for his 4-year-old son Jack.

In his remote western city he learned that the boy was dangerously ill and disregarding all peril of capture, he immediately started for his home here. Last night, a mud-spattered automobile drove up to Towne's wife's home here and Towne jumped out. He was recognized. Several hours later the police entered the house and found him sleeping, exhausted.

BOY PLACES POWDER ON STOVE; INJURED

Max Ross, the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Ross, 913 Vine street, met with a serious accident Saturday afternoon by which his face and hands were severely burned and his vision may be impaired for life.

The boy had been out with his playmates during the afternoon and in some manner had obtained a quantity of black gun powder which he brought home with him in a sack. He placed the powder on the gas range in the kitchen and in the explosion which resulted a considerable quantity of the powder was blown into his face and eyes. The child is resting easily today, although the extent of his injuries has not yet been fully determined by the physician in attendance.

MAY STOP STRIKE

WASHINGTON, May 24.—There is a likelihood of forcible federal interference in the Georgia firemen's strike. Under the recent instructions sent by the attorney general to the district attorney at Marion, the federal government put itself on record as determining that there should be no interference with the United States mails.

TRAVERS IS BEATEN

EDINBURGH, May 24.—Jerome Travers, the American golf champion, was defeated today by Jay Henderson in the first round of the play for the British amateur championship. Henderson won 2 up and 1 to play.

S.S.S. REMOVES BLOOD HUMORS

Every pore and gland of the skin is employed in the necessary work of preserving its smooth, even texture, softening and cleansing it, and regulating the temperature of our bodies. This is done by an evaporation through each tiny outlet, which goes on continually day and night. When the blood becomes infected with humors and acids a certain percentage of these impurities also pass off with the natural evaporation, and their sour, fiery nature irritates and inflames the skin, and dries up its natural oils, causing pimples, boils, pustules or some itching rash, or hard, scaly skin affecting the S.S.S. cures skin troubles of every kind by neutralizing the acids and removing the humors from the blood. S.S.S. cools the acid-heated circulation, builds it up to its normal strength and thickness, multiplies the nutritious, red corpuscles, and enriches it in every way. Then the skin, instead of being irritated and diseased by the exuding acid matter, is nourished, soothed and softened by this cooling, healthy stream of blood. S.S.S. the greatest of blood purifiers, expels all foreign matter and surely cures Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum and all other diseases and affections of the skin. It removes pimples, blackheads, and other unsightly blemishes from the skin and assists in restoring a good complexion. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice desired free to all who write. ABOVE ILLUSTRATION is still another exemplification of the "goodness" of La Crosse Monumental Works Memorials. The concern's product speaks for itself wherever installed and is constantly winning new laurels and additional business for its active and progressive management. The La Crosse Monumental Works is an enterprise of which the city may well be proud for it ranks with the best institutions of its character throughout the entire west.

Last Call for Memorial Day

If you are contemplating buying a monument in memory of a dear one who has gone before, do it now, for this of all periods in the year is the time to have a memorial set. We present our goods with one word that has been our constant thought from the beginning, and that word is MERIT. To every person who has purchased work from us in the past we are greatly indebted because that person has helped to build up our business.

To every prospective customer let us say that we bring you no claim or reminder of the faults or defects of goods offered by other companies, because we believe in the fact that our goods have sufficient merit to stand upon and because we believe in the adage which has been our motto from the first, "TRUE MERIT WINS SUCCESS."

The price of all our work marked in plain figures. Comparison of work and prices earnestly solicited.

Watch the Eyes

With comfort comes contentment, and with contentment happiness. Perfectly fitted glasses insures all this. Eye strain which causes headache, nervousness and various ills of the body, instantly relieved. We have been exceptionally successful in fitting glasses. A few of the testimonials which I receive daily.

"My position as a stenographer requires constant use of eyes, and I was troubled with headache, nervous indigestion, until I consulted W. T. Irvine and was fitted with glasses. They are perfectly satisfactory in every detail." Respectfully A. C. W.

"For 20 years was troubled with nervous headaches and the last two years there was not a day passed without suffering. After remedies failed I consulted W. T. Irvine, about eye glasses. I found such immediate relief in them that I will say, with thanks, that I have not suffered any nervousness or headaches since. I highly recommend every one who suffers with headache or any trouble with the eyes to consult Mr. Irvine.

SUES GREEK PRIEST FOR DEFAMATION

NEW YORK, May 24.—In the Raphael Haweeny, of Brooklyn, head of the Orthodox Greek church and spiritual head of the Syrians in America, who was lately decorated with the order of St. Ann by the Czar of Russia, has been made defendant in a suit for $10,000 filed by Mrs. Sadie Wibhy, who alleges defamation of character. Mrs. Wibhy alleges that she was forced into a marriage with Morshed Abraham Wibhy in Philadelphia when but 12 years old. After a short stay in Tripoli she returned to America with the understanding that her husband would follow. She was advised of the filing of a suit for divorce by her husband and the circulation of a report that she was of evil character. This charge was made, she says, by Bishop Haweeny in his report to the bishop of Tripoli.

DRY GOODS TRUST.

NEW YORK, May 24.—The United Dry Goods company of New York was incorporated Saturday with $51,000,000 capital. Merchants say that if the new concern succeeds in controlling the wholesale dry goods trade of the country, it will be one of the most important trusts in existence. J. P. Morgan is interested.

It is seldom as embarrassing to meet a bill as it is to meet the bill collector.

SCRUBS TO LIVE BUT LOSES BABES

Two Children of Mrs. Minnie Runstick Taken to the Home for the Friendless

Mrs. Minnie Runstick, Mormon Coulee road, whose husband deserted her last winter, and who has since by scrubbing, eked out an existence for herself and two small children, Myrtle and Ruby, aged 7 and 3 years respectively, was taken to the county poor farm yesterday by humane officer Charles H. Berry and the county poor commissioners. The children have been placed in the Home for the Friendless.

When the humane officer entered the Runstick home Saturday afternoon, there was not a scrap of anything edible in the house and the woman was ill abed from overwork and starvation.

Several days ago Mrs. Runstick fainted in a down town office while scrubbing the floors and since that time she has been unable to care for herself.

Her husband was out of work all winter, and before he left burned up every piece of furniture in the house. Except a few bundles of rags, the Runstick family is now destitute of everything.

NIGHT RIDERS WAR ON IN NICARAGUA

NEW ORLEANS, La., May 22.—Dispatches from Bluefields, Nicaragua, say banana plantations have been laid waste by night riders in the last three nights near there, and the people today are awaiting news of a revolution led by night riders.

The attacks are being directed against the Bluefields Fruit company. Seven American and Mexican warships are in this vicinity. The greater part of the Nicaraguan forces are already in the field and more than 5,000 men are assembled on the Honduran frontier, while smaller forces are stationed in other parts. A large army is being mobilized by General Aurelio Estrada.

PRESBYTERIANS IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

DENVER, Colo., May 24.—The second week of the 123rd general assembly of the Presbyterian church began today with a discussion of the standing committee on free education.

At the afternoon session, the report of the committee on education will be read and is expected to provoke a stirring debate.

Considerable enthusiasm was manifested today over the results of the series of meetings held yesterday in the interest of labor. Commissioners expressed their belief that the meetings have done more than anything in recent years to bring the church closer to the working classes.

Dr. James Barkley, of Detroit, the new moderator, delivered the moderator's annual sermon yesterday, reviewing at length the work of the church throughout the world.

If a man is the architect of his own fortune he shouldn't restrict himself to the building of air castles. The owls are always holding conventions and resolving that the eagle is flying to high.

THE DAILY MARKETS

FOREIGN MARKETS

New York Stocks
NEW YORK, May 24.—The week started with a display of strength, fractional advances were made in nearly everything traded in. A number of issues reached new high points for the movement. While Steel common again lifted its record to 605-8, railroad issues were also in good demand. Erie First Preferred advanced a point. The minor steel industrial shares showed fair gains and other industrials shared in the rising tendency.

11 a. m.—The market retained a strong tone all through the first hour but price movements were generally narrow and few gains were made outside of those established in the first fifteen minutes. Steel common, in which speculative interest just now is concentrated, made further fractional gains. The Hill stocks ruled strong. Reading also maintained about all of its early advance but there was some easing off in the western railroad stocks on traders selling. In the late forenoon trading was generally at a moderate volume without any appearance of aggression on either the bull or bear side.

Noon.—The market ruled generally quiet during the last half of the forenoon, receding moderately under small selling with prices of a number of the leading issues a shade lower than at the close on Saturday.

2 P. M.—Throughout the afternoon the market ruled firm. Some concessions in prices were made by the railroad and industrial issues, the reaction extended to as much as a point from the highest reached in the morning trading.

Chicago Grain

CHICAGO, May 24.—Wheat opened strong with Patten selling. Offerings were only moderate, however, and the opening was steady to 1-4 cent up for July. Corn started strong and was bid up one cent at opening. Oats unusually active and higher. Provisions tame.

Noon.—After an excited hour when May and July wheat touched new high prices, the market steadied and reacted fractionally. Corn and oats were very strong and active.

Close.—Wheat recovered from the temporary reaction and rose more sharply than ever, closing within 1-8 cent of the day's high point for May and 1-4 cent of the high point for July. Corn and oats both closed very strong.

About the Baking if you use

CALUMET Baking Powder

When the baking does not come just right you are inclined to blame everything but the real cause. Poor baking powder spoils more food than any other one thing. Try a can of CALUMET and feel easy about your baking. It never fails to produce sweet, delicious food. On account of its great raising power and moderate cost it is the most economical.

Misleading advertisements may have led you to believe that you take baking powder into the stomach in the same form as it is in the can. Here is the truth: In the process of baking the heat causes a chemical reaction in the baking powder which destroys or entirely changes the nature of the original ingredients. Therefore, the original contents of the can or what is printed on the label is no indication of what you get in the food.

In Calumet Baking Powder the ingredients are so scientifically compounded that this chemical reaction leaves no tartaric acid, Alum, Lime or other residue in the food. In a Cream of Tartar or Trust Baking Powder this chemical reaction turns the Cream of Tartar into Rochelle Salts, a drug which should never be taken in food.

CALUMET complies with all pure food laws—both State and National. Your Grocer will guarantee it. If he offers "something just as good," refuse it—insist on having CALUMET and be sure of good baking.

Received highest award World's Pure Food Exposition, Chicago, 1907, which positively proves there is no guesswork about CALUMET, because this award means that it was highest in quality and is absolutely pure.

FATAL FIGHT ON ENGINEER TENDER

Man Accused of Murder Is Now in Jail—Train Goes at Fifty Mile Rate When Tragedy Occurs

SIoux CITY, Iowa, May 24.—While Northwestern passenger train No. 11, enroute to Sioux City from Council Bluffs, was running at a speed of fifty miles an hour, three men, who were beating their way on the tender, engaged in a combat, presumably as the result of an attempted holdup, and one, whose name could not be learned, was pushed over the end of the tender and crushed to death.

One of the two men remaining rushed over to the cab and charged the other with the crime. The train was slowed down, and the accused man jumped off. He was captured by the engineer and fireman and both men were turned over to officers at Missouri Valley. They gave the names of Jack Pratt and Ben Sloane. The latter has been held for murder. The crime occurred at Crescent, Iowa.

How to Avoid Stomach Trouble.

When the stomach fails to perform its functions, the bowels become deranged, the liver and the kidneys congested causing numerous diseases. The stomach and liver must be restored to a healthy condition, and Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets can be depended upon to do it. Easy to take and most effective.

FREEZES TO DEATH IN PAPER SHACK

DULUTH, Minn., May 24.—The remains of an unknown man were found in a miserable shack a short distance from the Northland Country club. The man had been frozen to death some time during the winter. The shack had been built out of pieces of wood and was lined with tar paper. This was all the protection the man had from the fierce winter weather.

ORE TRAIN HURLED INTO "BIG MUDDY"

HELENA, Mont., May 24.—A rather spectacular wreck occurred on the Montana Central division of the Great Northern at a point between here and Great Falls when an ore train was wrecked by an ore car jumping the track, precipitating 18 cars into the Missouri river. Brakeman Rogers was killed and Engineer Sieben seriously injured.

FISHED ON SUNDAY; BOTH DROWNED

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 24.—Through the capsizing of the skiff from which they were fishing, Thos. Dunn and Roy Wagner, both of Minneapolis, were drowned yesterday in Turtle Lake, which is located a short distance beyond the J. J. Hill farm.

Dunn was the proprietor of a saloon at 307 Washington avenue south and was 42 years old. He was single.

Wagner was a carpenter, 32 years old, and lived at Nicollet avenue and Eighth street. He is survived by a widow and two children.

"WORKING" THE COURT

JACKSON, Tenn., May 24.—The supreme court judges who now have under advisement the appeal of six night riders condemned to hang for the murder of Captain Rankin at Reelfoot Lake, received a mail-sack of anonymous letters asking clemency. When the cases were argued yesterday that five wives of the married prisoners appeared in court each with a small babe in her arms.

MAN INTENDED TO SHOOT BALLOON

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 24.—Commodore E. P. Vilas, Milwaukee Aero club, has found the young man who was caught aiming a heavy caliber rifle at the balloon "Pabst," near North Prairie, during its flight on Thursday.

John H. Moss, with Fred Phelps and C. E. Ihrig, Waukesha, found the North Prairie young man, with four others in an auto party, aiming a rifle from a fence at the balloon holding Major H. B. Hersey, Prof. W. S. Johnson and Mr. Vilas in the basket.

That the young fellow really intended to shoot is now certain. Mr. Vilas had a talk with him in the office of District Attorney Milo Muckelstone in Waukesha on Saturday. He said the party of young farmers in the auto saw the balloon and, thinking it was a small affair or a runaway, had followed it three miles in the auto, waiting for a chance to bring it down with a bullet.

POLICE SEARCH FOR TEXAN

MILWAUKEE, May 24.—Orphan asylums and institutions for the care of homeless children in Wisconsin are being communicated with by the Milwaukee police in an effort to trace Julius Edward Fangarow, who has been missing from his father's home in San Antonio, Tex., for the last ten years. He is supposed to have been placed in a Milwaukee orphan asylum in 1899, upon the death of his mother who is said to have been living near this city.

The boy is now about 15 years of age.

LINCOLN MONUMENT IS ALSO HIS OWN

KENOSHA, Wis., May 24.—Oria M. Calkins, one of the wealthiest residents of Kenosha, died suddenly at his home here Sunday morning as a result of acute heart trouble. The death of Mr. Calkins came as a shock on account of the fact that he had within the last few days made the city a present of a splendid memorial to Abraham Lincoln to have been one of the most noteworthy celebrations of Memorial day in Wisconsin.

JEALOUS HUSBAND SHOOT AT WIFE

BEAVER DAM, Wis., May 24.—John Wenowitch late Saturday night shot and seriously wounded his wife with a revolver. Wenowitch shot four times, the last shot taking effect near the spinal column. Mrs. Wenowitch will recover.

Wenowitch and his wife, who are Slavs, conduct a boarding house. Wenowitch accused his wife of improper conduct with some of the boarders.

FIRST MAD DOG SCARE

WHITEWATER, Wis., May 24.—A mad dog has alarmed the people about Coldspring and the town authorities have ordered that all dogs in the township be chained or muzzled for the next thirty days. A mad dog went through the town biting other dogs and animals.

Families with babies and families without babies are so sorry for each other.

CHANGES LIKELY IN PRIMARY LAW

Legislature Expected to Pass Amendments of Importance; Dunn's Ballot To Be Optional

MADISON, Wis., May 24.—Important changes will be made to the primary and general election laws of the state if the senate concurs in three bills which have been passed by the assembly. The Twesme bill would secure a closed primary and prevent members of one political party voting in the primary of another party. The Hull bill, which has also been passed by the assembly, delays the holding of the primary until the second week in September to obviate two holidays in the same week. At the present time with the primary held on the first Tuesday in September it is declared that many of the voters tired from the exertions of a Labor day program the Monday before do not attend the primaries. This bill would obviate this difficulty. The Dunn pocketballot bill has also been passed. This measure fathered by Assemblyman McConnell of La Crosse, if adopted by the county boards will secure a secret ballot in the general elections.

To prevent one political party participating in the nominations of another party at the primary, the Twesme bill provides that ballots shall be printed upon paper of a different tint or color from that upon which is printed the ballot of any other party. The secretary of state designates the color of the paper to be used by each party and it shall be uniform throughout the state.

A voter upon entering the booth asks for the ballot of a certain party, which shall be announced distinctly in the booth, with the question: "Are there any objections?" If the voter is challenger he shall submit the ballot he is challenged by and intends to vote, if they are nominated in the primary. The one objection made to this bill on the floor of the assembly was by Assemblyman Ingram, who feared that it might disfranchise the "ever increasing number of independent voters."

The Dunn pocket ballot may be adopted by county boards for use at general elections. Assemblyman Hambrecht declares that the adoption of this ballot will work as great a good in the election districts of the country, as the installation of the voting machine has in the city. As the ballot is designed "there will be no opportunities for fraudulent practices, one that may be counted rapidly and whereby a complete record will be kept in the tally sheets, showing how each ballot is counted." The voter is provided with an envelope of ballots so designed that he can quickly select the candidates for which he wishes to vote at the same time keeping a complete record of those candidates for which he does not wish to cast his ballot. It is said there are several counties of the state willing to give the ballot a trial.

HUSBAND ACCUSES HONORE

CHICAGO, May 24.—A precipice was filed in the superior court here giving notice of a suit for $50,000 damages against Adrian C. Honore, brother of Mrs. Potter Palmer, on charge of alienation of affections. Attorney Beattie, who filed the precipice, represents the friends of J. H. La Pearl, who alleges that Honore alienated his wife's affections.

TRY ARMY AND NAVY RETRENCHMENTS

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 24.—Secretary Meyer announced today that the reductions in the estimates for the naval appropriation for the fiscal year 1910 and 1911 will not interfere with the building program. This will be for two battleships of highest and most progressive Dreadnaught type and a repair ship to accompany the fleet.

In the estimates which will be submitted by the secretary of the navy there will be a reduction of $10,000,000 in accordance with President Taft's express desire to meet the deficit of from $25,000,000 to $100,000,000. This shrinkage will be met by the reduction of items in the preliminary estimates submitted by the bureau chiefs and the commandants of the navy yards.

As soon as Secretary Dickinson returns from his trip to Panama and Cuba he will take up with the heads of the war department divisions, the question of curtailing the army appropriation by $10,000,000.

AFTER HASKELL TODAY

TULSA, Okla., May 24.—The special federal grand jury in the town lot investigation today began taking testimony in the Haskell, Turner and Eaton cases. What, if any, was the finding in the first case is being kept secret. It is believed the investigation is going through to the end. J. C. Wilkinson, St. Louis, was the first witness called today.
